

FRENCH DEPARTMENT

In the economic, social and cultural scope of the European Community, the knowledge of two or even three European languages is increasingly necessary. If you are learning English as a first language, do not miss the opportunity to learn French in our school.

The knowledge of two languages, in our case French and English, will facilitate your access to the working world, as France is the first client and the second supplier of the Valencian Community.

WHY LEARN FRENCH ?

- It is one of the indispensable languages in many professions: interpreters, tourism, hostesses, translators, archivists, catering, air hostesses, advertising agents, journalists, diplomats ...
- It is one of the ways of access to the European programmes (LINGUA, SÓCRATES, LEONARDO ...).
- It is a way of access to the training programmes in companies.
- It is a language of international communication, it is an official and working language in International Organizations : European Union, UN, UNESCO ...
- It is a language with a very important cultural tradition and with an essential relation with Spain, particularly with our Community.

ADVANTAGES

- Teaching in small groups, using audiovisual media and accessing Internet in the computer room.
- French is a language that has many similarities with Valencian and Spanish.
- It is an optional subject that students may choose with continuity for the four years of ESO and the two years of Bachillerato.
- Specialised teachers, with a degree in French studies.
